

District 10 Iris Dismukes

1. What prompted you to run for the Commission now?

- A. I am born leader, a people person, and a person that will listen to both sides. I will be a voice for the people. I do not have all the answers, but I have a voice to represent you well. I am looking forward to serve you and the community. I am the candidate to vote for because I care. I care about the direction of our country.
- B. I understand the direction of our country can be turned around in a positive way one state at a time. This change starts with positive county representation.
- C. I plan on representing our county in a way that will reflect the voices of the
- D. Our county is ready for new and fresh leadership and the Democratic party is ready to lead us in the direction of quality of life for all and equal opportunities for all.

2. If elected, what goals do you have for the next four years?

- A. Public safety in schools and community. Public safety is a major concern of many parents. We never thought we would see a day where many parents fears sending their children to school. It is our job to provide that reassurance that our parents children are safe here in Rutherford County.
- B. I would also like to develop ways to establish affordable taxes, in addition to assisting in the budget of a higher minimum wage pay rate. Our population is increasing as well as cost of living. It is my duty to assist in ensuring the people in our community can provide a comfortable lifestyle that reflects the growth of our county.
- C. The number one issue facing Rutherford County in the next five years would be safety concerns, infrastructure issues, and the negative impact our state taxes have on our county and state.
- D. To address the safety concerns of our neighborhood, I would like to assist in the enforcement of neighborhood watch in communities with higher safety risks, and promoting confidence and trust in our police department to keep us safe.
- E. To address the infrastructure concerns, we will need to take steps to provide career growth that will match our residential growth here in this county.

3. What Standing Committees are you interested in serving on and why?

I am interested in serving committees that support the interest of District 10.
